

Planning my funeral

By filling this quick form in for yourself you'll face many of the questions a celebrant needs to guide a family through when planning a funeral. Much of the detail will have been collected by the funeral director when the family first when to meet with them but it is always wise to check and confirm the details for yourself.

Personal Information:
Full name:
Nickname:
Date and place of birth:
Parents' names:
Sibling names:
Spouse/partner name(s):
Date(s) of marriage(s):
Offspring names:
Grandchildren names:
Schools/universities:

Funeral details

Type of funeral: e.g. burial, cremation etc.
If cremation what would you like to happen to your ashes afterwards? If burial, do you have a preferred location?
Style: (e.g. natural, Pagan, Christian, Islamic, strict Humanist)
Kind of coffin/shroud:
Entrance music:
Hymns to be sung (optional):
Reflection music:
Exit music:
Prayers/readings/quotations
Uniform or other items to be placed on coffin (optional):

Eulogy/life story details:

Interesting childhood stories:

Teenage stories:

Young adult stories:

Career highlights:

Family life highlights

Eulogy/life story details:

Hobbies/interests:

Notable achievements:

Tell the story of your life
as you would want it to be told in about 1000
words.
You'll probably need more paper!